PASSAGES ISSUE PAPERS • $4,000 (per issue)

Discounts on Bundled Sponsorships

Passages is our series of in-depth issue papers that address challenging issues in family giving. Sponsored editions are distributed to an estimated audience of over 70,000 decision makers in the philanthropic field, including over 11,000 recipients of our monthly Family Giving News newsletter, our website visitors, and through partner publications, convenings, webinars and newsletters. In addition, we have the option of providing a pre-determined amount of Passages papers co-branded with your logo which you could distribute to your client and prospect base.

We also welcome suggestions from Sponsors for potential future topics.

Recent Passages topics that have been featured in this series include:

- Celebrating Milestones in Family Philanthropy
- Discretionary Grants: Engaging Family... or Pandora's Box?
- A Place at the Table: Non-Family Membership on the Family Foundation Board
- Measuring What Counts: Meaningful Evaluation for Family Foundations
- Philanthropy's Role in Developing Responsible Adults
- Ready to Learn: Family Philanthropy Supports Early Learning and Literacy
- Managing Risk: Board Oversight of Foundation Investments
- Choosing and Preparing Your Grantmaking Successors
- Logic Models - Not Just for Big Foundations Anymore
