In this process, the Committee will discuss and consider the auditors' independence, the nature, rigor, and proposed scope of the audit process, including oversight of fees, receive and review all reports, and provide to the auditors full access to the Committee and to the Board to report on any and all appropriate matters. The Committee shall also pre-approve the nature and scope of audit and limited non-audit work performed by the auditors.
- (2) Maintain free and open communication (including private executive sessions) at least annually with the independent auditors and with the management of the Foundation.
- (3) Meet with the auditors and management at least annually to review the annual financial statements and footnotes, including a discussion of the suitability of accounting principles, review of judgmental areas, and consideration of audit adjustments whether recorded or not.

- (4) Receive and review the auditors' comments and suggestions; discuss with management and the auditors the adequacy and quality of the Foundation's internal controls, adequacy of staff, and policies, procedures and systems; and, make recommendations to the Board.
- (5) Review periodically communications, comments, or complaints made by employees regarding illegal or unethical behavior pursuant to the Foundation's whistleblower policy and procedures.
- (6) Obtain reports and information from officers, employees, and others as the Committee deems necessary. Investigate any matter brought to its attention with the power to retain counsel and/or experts for this purpose.

Minutes shall be kept of each Committee meeting and shall be filed with the corporate records. The Committee shall conduct a performance self-evaluation that considers matters related to its responsibilities every two years after, and with input from, the Board self-evaluation process.
