Family Foundation/Consultant Guide

STARTING UP

- ☐ Sense of anticipation
- ☐ Enthusiasm for learning
- ☐ Discussing values, mission, and process

GROWING

- ☐ Developing an identity
- ☐ Grantmaking programs in place
- ☐ Accomplishments on record
- ☐ Increase in assets
- ☐ Expanding board or family involvement

RENEWING

- ☐ Interest in reflection and change☐ Evaluating new ideas
 - _____

1. Know the Foundation's Life-Cycle StageUse this checklist to identify the stage that best describes your foundation.

MATURING

- ☐ Secure; confident decision-making
- ☐ Established
- ☐ Well-managed transitions
- ☐ Willing to plan and explore new ideas

STATIONARY

- Comfortable
- □ Plans implemented
- Business as usual

ENDING

Spending down or dividing

- Articulate values, vision and purpose.
- Build a governance and management structure.
- Train trustees.
- Set foundation practices, procedures and policies.
- Develop grantmaking program.

- Revisit mission, vision, programs, and policies.
- Evaluate impact.
- Plan for the future and capital events.
- Develop generational /board succession plan.
- Build board unity.
- Address geographic dispersion of family.
- Provide orientation for new board and staff.
- · Address family dynamics.

- Assess progress on strategic plan.
- Consider working with other funders.
- Review or revisit perpetuity.
- Revise succession plan as needed.
- Foundation retreat periodically to assess, affirm, reconsider.

- Seek legal and accounting advice.
- Plan for possible new entities.

3.) Find the Right Fit Identify key consultant attributes.

Agree Upon the Foundation's NeedsDiscuss common consultant engagement points.

SKILLS

Background and expertise

EXPERIENCE

Prior related work and reference checks

PERSONALITY

Personal and professional style; "chemistry"

Establish Clear Goals for the project and for the future